

CAUTION

It has recently come to our attention that emails were sent to several law firms overseas purportedly from Okinawa Higa, who claims to be the CEO of A. AOKI, Ishida & Associates and inquires about legal services for a debt collection matter.

Please be informed that “A. AOKI, Ishida & Associates” is our firm’s previous name; there is and was no person named “Okinawa Higa” in our firm; and our firm has no relation at all to the email from “Okinawa Higa”.

We believe that the email purportedly sent from Okinawa Higa is spam. Please disregard the same.

Your due attention to the above would be appreciated.
